

I am opposed to allowing all levels of the media to be controlled by too few owners. Our free Society will only endure through a wide ranging thought process. Decreasing the number of independent media owners in the long run will in effect result in limiting free speech and independent thought.